1 Thessalonians 5:18

In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

In everything give thanks to God the Father, in the name of Jesus Christ. Thanks are to be given to him for all things; for all temporal good things; for our beings, the preservation of them; for food and clothing, and all the mercies of life; for the means of grace, the Word and its ordinances, and the ministers of the Gospel;

for spiritual blessings, for electing, redeeming, regenerating, adopting, pardoning, justifying, and persevering grace: for the Kingdom, a right unto it, and a good hope of it;

and especially for Jesus Christ, for such an husband, such an head, such a surety and Saviour, and advocate with the Father, as he is; and for life, peace, joy, comfort, righteousness, and salvation in him

Even so, come Lord Jesus.
